ABOUT THE TRUTH SERIES

EXAMINE. QUESTION. UNDERSTAND. GROW.

The TRUTH Series combines psychology, education, leadership, historical analysis, and human understanding to examine some of society's most difficult conversations.

Rather than telling audiences what to think, the lectures encourage participants to examine how beliefs are formed, how assumptions become accepted as truth, and how inherited narratives shape human behavior.

Each presentation invites audiences to challenge familiar ideas, explore overlooked perspectives, and engage in meaningful reflection about identity, perception, morality, conflict, and human connection.

THE GOAL IS NOT DIVISION.
THE GOAL IS UNDERSTANDING.

WHAT MAKES THE TRUTH SERIES DIFFERENT?

EVERY LECTURE
INCLUDES A
PRESCRIPTION

MANY PRESENTATIONS DIAGNOSE.
THE TRUTH SERIES PRESCRIBES.

Each lecture concludes with practical principles designed to challenge inherited distortions, encourage reflection, strengthen human connection, and promote healthier ways of thinking about ourselves and others.

CHALLENGE
Distortions

ENCOURAGE Reflection

STRENGTHEN
Connection

PROMOTE Better Thinking

BECAUSE INSIGHT WITHOUT APPLICATION
RARELY PRODUCES CHANGE.

FEATURED LECTURES

IDEAS THAT CHALLENGE WHAT WE THINK WE KNOW

The TRUTH Series examines history, psychology, identity, conditioning, perception, and human behavior through a collection of powerful lectures designed to encourage reflection, critical thinking, and deeper human understanding.

THE SIGNS WERE LYING

How institutions, symbols, messaging, and inherited narratives shape perception and influence human understanding.

THE GOSPEL OF DISSONANCE

An exploration of cognitive dissonance, self-justification, moral reasoning, and the tension between belief and reality.

WHITE PRIVILEGE: A KNAPSACK OF DEADLY POISON

A critical examination of labeling, identity, social narratives, and the psychological impact of inherited assumptions.

FEATURED LECTURES

CONTINUED

BENEATH THE SURFACE

A lecture examining what lies beneath visible identity, outward assumptions, and the deeper human realities often missed in conversations about difference.

BEYOND THE EYE COLOR EXPERIMENT

A deeper look at the lessons, limitations, and continuing relevance of the eye color experiment in understanding bias, conditioning, power, and perception.

THE DOLL TEST

An examination of the psychological impact of learned perception, internalized messaging, identity formation, and the social meanings assigned to skin color.

EVERY LECTURE CONCLUDES WITH A PRACTICAL PRESCRIPTION DESIGNED TO ENCOURAGE REFLECTION, CHALLENGE INHERITED DISTORTIONS, AND PROMOTE HEALTHIER WAYS OF UNDERSTANDING OURSELVES AND OTHERS.

WHO THE TRUTH SERIES SERVES

The TRUTH Series was designed for audiences willing to examine difficult questions, challenge inherited assumptions, and pursue deeper human understanding through thoughtful dialogue and critical reflection.

UNIVERSITIES & COLLEGES

Educational presentations designed to encourage critical thinking, historical reflection, leadership discussion, and meaningful dialogue among students, educators, and administrators.

LEADERSHIP PROGRAMS

Programs that explore perception, decision-making, communication, group dynamics, and the influence of belief systems on leadership.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT EVENTS

Thought-provoking sessions examining identity, perception, communication, conflict, organizational culture, and human behavior.

FAITH COMMUNITIES

Presentations focused on empathy, reconciliation, moral responsibility, healing, and strengthening human connection.

COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS

Programs designed to foster understanding, relationship building, constructive dialogue, and stronger community engagement.

CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS

Presentations that encourage productive community dialogue, understanding, and constructive engagement across differing perspectives.

“ Education should dismantle distortion, not quietly preserve it. ”
